Danvers Rotary Meets
Mondays at 12:00 Noon
Danversport Yacht Club

Rotary Theme 2010-2011: Building Communities Bridging Continents

Ray Klinginsmith - President,
Rotary International
Stephen May - District Governor,
District 7930

Today's meeting was quick. President Tom opened today's meeting and Matt Schroeder had nice prayer to start us off. For Lunch we had salads and a filling buffet.

After lunch Tom introduced the softball team members and praised them for their hard work this year which paid off in a District Softball Championship. Danvers beat the Woburn team this year in the finals. Tom is also talking about having a Softball Tourney at the end of September.

VARIETY SHOW

Thursday, November 11th, 2010. at 6:30pm.

Showtime 7:30pm. Cost is $50. Magic, Singing, Music, Comedy, Mindreading and a Silent Auction.

Rick Gilmore passed out ad book reminders for the Variety Show this year. The Ad Book is one of the bigger fundraisers every year and we need all Rotarians to do their part in finding ads.

The Variety Show flyers were passed out at the tables. The flyers were created by Dale Gienapp. Don Desmond reminded everyone to pass these flyers out and hang them at your workplace and offices. Don is looking for act sponsors which costs $500.

Visiting Rotarian (Abiv Hod) from the Somerville Club. Abiv was introduced and a guest of Rick Gilmore. Abiv is also a former Rotoractian

Pavilion Work

Gary Nangle made an announcement about restoring the Pavilion. On Saturday, September 18th Gary will be leading a group of Volunteer Rotarians in fixing up the Pavilion. The work will involve replacing floor boards and other maintenance items.
