Service Above Self

GUEST SPEAKER

Founder, George Myers, talked about a local non profit that provides children, youth, and families in need with financial assistance that will support them during difficult times while promoting hope, resilience, and opportunity. Their vision is to support individuals and families confronting challenges have access to assistance when faced with obstacles threatening their stability or graced with an opportunity that may positively impact their lives. George and his team work together with local social service organizations and schools to identify children, youth, and families who are in need of financial assistance at a crucial time in their lives. Goal is to bridge a gap in current resources and to do so in a timely fashion to meet the immediacy of need. Administrative time lags are minimized to the extent possible. They fund basic essentials and necessities as well as enrichment opportunities for those who are working to improve their lives.

Examples include but are not limited to:

NEED-BASED: Essential home appliances, School supplies, Winter clothing, Car repair for transport to work or school, Wheelchair or specialized medical equipment

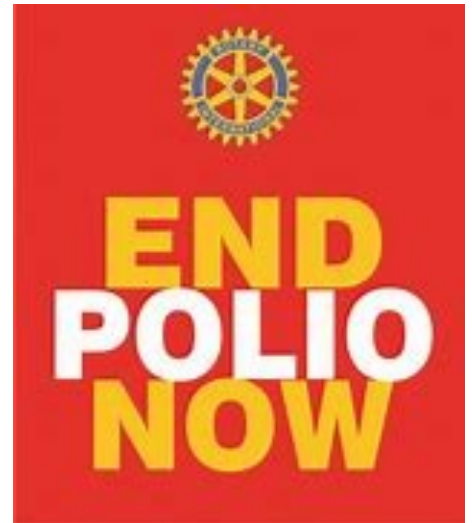

OPPORTUNITY AND ENRICHMENT, Education or career training, Computer or iPad to facilitate learning, Camp or summer enrichment
