Matt provided us with a very informative presentation about the Danvers Rotary Endowment Trust. There are multiple ways for people to give. Cash, appreciated stock, qualified charitable distributions, beneficiary distributions and estate requests are all gladly accepted. The funds stay in the pot for 3 years and are then allocated out to clubs. Local clubs are able to write grants for approximately 2-3 thousand dollars in order to complete projects of impact in their community. Some of our projects include: The Danvers YMCA gymnasium, the Pavilion and the Children's Garden at the Peabody Institute Library, Danvers, the playground at Riverside School, the Witchcraft Victims' Memorial near Gates field, the mural restoration project.

Giving to this foundation is a lasting way to leave a legacy!

Fellowship, friends and fantastic food!
