Guest Speaker – “The Car Guys”, Bill Papageorge

bestcarsale4you@gmail.com

Neil Waldman introduced Bill, today. Bill discussed the pros and cons of purchasing a car, both used and new. “The Car Guys” consist of Bill Papageorge and Joe Messina. They are passionate automobile enthusiasts from the metro Boston area. They want to make purchasing a vehicle hassle free. Their combined automotive knowledge and resources help clients obtain top quality vehicles at fair market value without the typical used car sales techniques. “The Car Guys” give their clients considerable savings because they have low overhead. They don’t have large brick and mortar facilities with the burden of millions of dollars in inventory and a large administrative and sales staff. They keep it like that so they can pass the savings on to you.

Bill and Joe are relentless in pursuing the perfect vehicle for you. “THE CAR GUYS” love what they do and what they do, they do well. Bill and Joe have been building their reputations for decades, and both know the importance of a satisfied client. A satisfied client will send “THE CAR GUYS” a referral. This is key in long term success and it is the motivation for their partnership.

Bill attended ITT Tech and North Eastern University as well as GM Auto School. He knows his stuff. Bill attended a number of local and national auctions looking for the perfect car. He reviews and inspects each car thoroughly, making sure there is no damages, hidden issues and water/flood concerns. Once he finds the perfect car – he changes the oil, wipers, filters and checks the brakes. He also offers warranties that fit your needs.
