

ROTORACLE

Danvers Rotary www.DanversRotary.org

April 11, 2022

President Contreas opened today's meeting with the Pledge Allegiance. Neal Waldman is back from Arizona and shared a nice invocation. Brigette Swift recently visited Southern California and attended a local Rotary Club meeting and brought back a club flag. Barry Kaplan is looking into organizing the traditional Bocci Tournament with Kiwanis and Lions Club.

Polar Plunge Update: Jessica McLaughlin and Matt Schroeder were our Polar Plunge representatives. They raised over $400 in donations. There were close to 200-300 people that participated in this successful Polio Eradication fundraiser.

Calendar Raffle Update: Lenny Mercier thanked everyone for making this fundraiser a BIG success. Looks like we have raised close to $12K. Thank You to all Rotarians for making a difference.

Rotary Birthday: April 23rd, 2023 our Club will be turning 100 years.

Suzanne also updated us on Rotary International and their role in providing humanitarian aid to the Ukraine. You can visit the Rotary International website if you would like to make a donation.

Invocation: Amy Werner

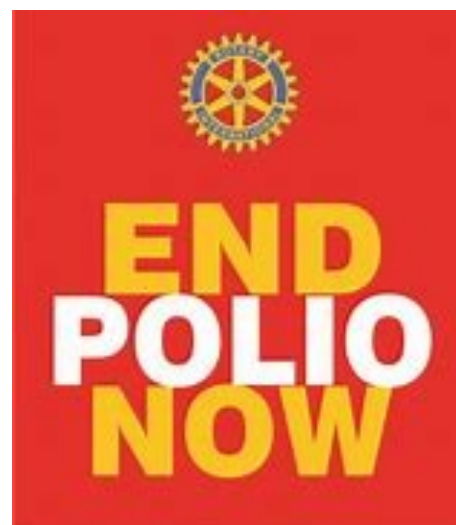

Today, we had the opportunity to learn about one of our newest members, Amy Werner. Amy grew up in Dover, Vermont. Attended Franklin Pierce College and went to graduate school in Westminster England and majored in Conference Mgt. While in England she was hit by a car and was hospitalized. Another person was also hit by the same drive and sadly died. Amy was in a coma and eventually returned back to the states where she received care and rehabilitation at Boston hospitals, including Brigham and Woman's and Spaulding Rehabilitation. Amy eventually moved to Medford MA and recently purchased a home in Danvers MA. Amy is going to school for Massage Therapy and volunteers at the Danvers YMCA. Amy is also our recent Secretary for the Rotary Board of Directors.
